

the child out of County. He had threatened I would never see him again.
Paul has a very volatile temper & discuss things with minor child that are unsafe & inappropriate.
Paul regularly lies about events
that are supposed to have happened
Like being involved in car accidents or children drowning
he is unsafe & uses physical threats as a way to control & intimidate
The most recent was Sat 7/2/22
when he was denied visitation & threatened to "End me"

4. These facts, along with the facts alleged in my accompanying Petition constitute my request for an Ex-Parte Order of Protection and Final Order of Protection.
5. I am requesting that an Ex-Parte Temporary Order of Protection and a Final Order of Protection be entered granting me the relief set out in my accompanying Petition.

Narrative & Statements

Narrative - Mathis, Tanner - 7/3/2022 1:56:09 PM (Initial)

On July 2nd, 2022 at approximately 10:50 a.m., I was dispatched to 121 N Aster Street in reference to a child custody issue. Dispatch advised Paul Lerch had requested a standby to pick up his son.

Once on scene, I made contact with Charity Edwards. Edwards stated that Lerch was suppose to pick up his son for the day for visitation. Edwards stated that it was agreed that Lerch would be there for pick up at 8:00 a.m. Edwards stated Lerch never showed and through a phone call, learned that instead, Lerch went to check his trot lines in Oklahoma. While speaking on the phone to Lerch, Edwards stated the conversation became heated where Lerch threatened her stating he would "end me".

I then contacted Lerch via phone, as he was still en route to the above address. I explained to Lerch that Edwards was not willing to allow him visitation today, as she stated he was late and they had plans this evening. I requested the Lerch meet me at the Greenwood Police Department.

At 11:40 a.m., Lerch arrived at the police department where I gathered a statement from him. Lerch stated that he and Edwards agreed that he could go check his trot lines and would be late picking up his son. Edwards then told Lerch that she had plans and was taking their son with her, which upset Lerch. When I questioned Lerch about the threat towards Edwards, he denied ever saying so.

I observed a document that Edwards had signed that stated the custodial and non-custodial parent would mutually agree on a 12-hour block for visitation. The specific time was not listed, although Edwards stated it was from 8 a.m. - 8 p.m.

Lerch then requested we leave the Police department and standby at the above address so that he could ask Edwards for his son. Edwards denied.
