Plaintiff.

It is hereby stipulated by the parties that the Court enter the following Order protecting confidentiality of both party and non-party information to be disclosed in these litigations.

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. This Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles and Civil Local Rules. As set forth in Section 12.3 below, this Protective Order does not by itself entitle the Parties to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of information or items under this Order.
- 2.2 "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that constitute or include information that is not publicly known and that cannot be ascertained from an inspection of publicly available documents.
- 2.3 Counsel (without qualifier): House and Outside Counsel for a Party (as well as their respective support staff).
- 2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY."

2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material : all items or information, regardless of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced, disclosed or generated in this matter, such as in responses to discovery requests, at depositions, or in hearings.

- 2.6 Expert: a person who (1) has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this action, (2) is not a past or current employee of a Party, and (3) at the time of retention, is not anticipated to become an employee of a Party.
- "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" 2.7 Information or Items: extremely sensitive "Confidential Information or Items," disclosure of which to another Party or Non-Party, even under the restricted terms and conditions applicable to material designated "CONFIDENTIAL," would not adequately protect the interests of the Designating Party. Examples of HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY material include, but are not limited to, the following:
- Confidential licenses, licensing terms, and communications regarding Α. licensing;
 - B. Confidential sales, pricing, profit, and other financial information;
 - Confidential business, marketing, and strategic plans and forecasts; C.
- Confidential technical information, including design, engineering and D. development documents;
- Employee personal information, to the extent such information is E. produced and not redacted;
 - F. Trade Secrets;
 - Confidential customer information; and G.

- H. Any other type or category of information which a Producing Party believes must be held in highest level of confidence because it could otherwise create a competitive disadvantage.
- House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a Party or a related 2.8 entity. House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel.
- 2.9 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity not named as a Party.
- 2.10 Outside Counsel: attorneys who are not employees of a Party but are retained to represent or advise a Party in connection with this action.
- 2.11 Party: any party to one of the above actions, including all of its officers, directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel (and their support staffs). The individual actions are not consolidated and there is no obligation for one defendant to share its confidential information with any other defendant in the above-listed cases.
- 2.12 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material in this action.
- 2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., court reporting, photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.
- 2.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is "HIGHLY "CONFIDENTIAL" CONFIDENTIAL designated as or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY."
- 2.15 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected
