Proceedings: IN CHAMBERS - ORDER DENYING AS MOOT TCL'S MOTION TO DISMISS (DOCKET NO. 37) AND DIRECTING ANCORA TO FILE PROPOSED SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT (DOCKET NO. 42-1) AS ITS OPERATIVE PLEADING

Ancora timely filed its Court-ordered report/surreply to TCL's motion to dismiss. See Docket No. 42; see also Docket No. 41 (April 9, 2020 Minute Order, directing filing of same). Ancora states that the parties conducted a telephonic meet and confer on April 13, 2020, and “[b]ased on this conference, the parties believe that all issues raised in TCL’s motion have been resolved.” Docket No. 42 at 1 (emphasis in original). Ancora also responds to each of the questions posed in the Court’s April 9, 2020 Minute Order and explains why it believes them to be resolved either by Ancora’s proposed second amended complaint or its recently-served infringement contentions. See generally id.; see also Docket No. 42-1 (proposed second amended complaint).

Having reviewed the parties’ submissions, and given Ancora’s representation that the parties have resolved all issues relating to TCL’s motion to dismiss, the Court DENIES TCL’s motion to dismiss (Docket No. 37) AS MOOT. The Court finds that good cause warrants permitting Ancora to amend its operative pleading to memorialize the parties’ agreement. The Court ORDERS Ancora to file its proposed second amended complaint (Docket No. 42-1) as the operative pleading in this case by April 23, 2020. The hearing on TCL’s motion to dismiss set for Monday, April 20, 2020 is VACATED.
