Josh,

We disagree with your interpretation. As in previous trials in this district, we will file our administrative motion to bring our equipment in and Juniper can do the same.

Austin,

L.R. 7-11(a) states that an administrative motion “must be accompanied by ... either a stipulation under Civil L.R. 7-12 or by a declaration that explains why a stipulation could not be obtained.” Since there is agreement among the parties, a stipulation is required. If you disagree with our interpretation of the rules, I am happy to jump on a call to discuss further.

James, Gladys,

The Local Rules contemplate a stipulation when the parties agree, and we agree to your equipment list. We will incorporate the two lists into a single stipulation and proposed order for your review.

James,

Does Finjan oppose our request to bring the other equipment listed below into the courtroom and to be able to set up all of the equipment on Friday? We must file an administrative motion soon to ensure that we have Court approval in time, so please clarify whether Finjan opposes.

Thanks,
Josh

Josh,

If the Court allows the screen, we will use it. We suggest asking the clerk for guidance though. You can contact Geoff who is CC'd who is our trial technician.
