Re: Finjan, Inc. v. Juniper Networks, Inc., No. 3:17-cv-05659-WHA

Dear Judge Alsup:

I write to correct a statement I made during yesterday's argument relating to Juniper's motion for attorneys' fees (Dkt. 634). While presenting to the Court, I stated that the gentleman who provided the declaration regarding notice to Juniper of the '780 Patent, is a licensed attorney in good standing. I believed that representation to be accurate. I have since learned that although he is experienced in patent licensing, he is not an attorney, but instead a respected licensing professional. I apologize for that mistake and hope this correction resolves any misunderstanding.

Very truly yours,
