3 THE CLERK: Calling Civil Matter 18-2621, Finjan,
4 Incorporated versus Check Point Software Technologies,
5 Incorporated.

6 Counsel, please come forward and state your appearances.

7 MR. ANDRE: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Paul Andre
8 for Finjan. With me today is Kris Kastens. And from Finjan,
9 Julia Mar-Spinola is sitting back there.

10 MR. ROBERTS: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Clem
11 Roberts from Orrick Herrington for the defendant. And we have 12 Alyssa Caridis, Vickie Feeman, and Evan Brewer.

13 THE COURT: So I've put up here five bankers' boxes
14 full of stuff that you filed.

15 How on earth do you think that a federal judge is going to 16 go through all of the paper? 5,135 charts? 185,000 pages?
17 What do you want me to do with all of this? This is nuts.
18 This is totally beyond the pale.

19 Your job is to make your clients' cases clear. And 20 digestible for people. I couldn't spend a month going through 21 this, and do nothing else, and understand a minute of what
22 you're trying to do. It's crazy.

23 And you're not -- nobody in this case is helping
24 themselves or their clients, particularly, in the way that this 25 is going out. It's really not.

1 So what do you want me to do with this, Mr. Andre? What's
2 the point of throwing all of this stuff at me?

3 Everything that I looked at as I went -- as I tried to
4 drill down on the few examples that are in the briefing --
5 because there can't be a lot of them, because there are 185,000
6 pages in the charts. But every one of them didn't check out,
7 as far as I could tell, for your client.

8 But I have a whole lot more that I have to do. And I
9 didn't get a ton of help on the other side, because there are 10 limitations in pages.

11 So what am I supposed do with this?

12 MR. ANDRE: Your Honor, I think -- first of all, I
13 apologize. It was not our intent for the Court to receive --

14 THE COURT: Well, who else is going to get it,
15 Mr. Andre?

16 MR. ANDRE: We served the charts on the defendant,
17 because that's what they asked for. We asked them on numerous 18 occasions: Can we group the charts? And they moved twice to 19 say we could not group. And we had to have every single
20 different product, and every single SKU, every version charted
21 to try to avoid the grouping issue.

22 When I got Your Honor's second order striking some of the 23 contentions, and giving us clear instructions as to what to do,
24 we took it to heart. And we talked to counsel (Indicating).

25 We said: Is there any way we can group these charts to make it
