- PATENT INITIAL DISCLOSURES 3-2. Document Production Accompanying Disclosure.

With the "Disclosure of Asserted Claims and Infringement Contentions," the party claiming patent infringement must provide to the party or make available for inspection and copying:

(a) Documents (e.g., contracts, purchase orders, invoices, advertisements, marketing materials, offer letters, beta sales, third party or joint development agreements) sufficient to evidence each discussion with, disclosure to, or other material activity by the party, or sale of or offer to sell, the claimed invention prior to the date of application for the patent in suit. A party's failure to provide as required herein shall not constitute an admission that such document evidences or is prior art under 35 U.S.C. § 102(b).

(b) All documents evidencing the conception, reduction to practice, design, and development of each claimed invention prior to or before the date of application for the patent in suit or the priority date identified pursuant to P. R. 3-1(e), which shall be provided to the party claiming patent infringement.

(c) A copy of the file history for each patent in suit.
