1 And we understood that there was a schedule already built
2 in for opening summary judgment motions, but if Your Honor
3 changes, it that's fine, too.

4 THE COURT: Yeah, I'm just going to be -- so your --
5 the order from Docket 39 said three weeks from the -- from the 6 conference, and so that would be three weeks from today. But 7 it seems to me it's better that we run it from when you get my
8 ruling on the pending motion.

9 MR. WOLFF: Okay.

10 THE COURT: All right?

11 So two weeks from my order you'll file your opening motion
12 for summary judgment.

13 Then Qualys, you'll file an opposition, a -- it will be 14 one brief. It's a joint opposition and cross-motion for 15 summary judgment. We had previously said three weeks.

16 Does that still work?

17 MR. SMITH: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: And then I'll get plaintiff's reply in 19 support of its motion combined with its opposition to the 20 defendant's cross-motion. And we had put in three weeks.

21 Does that still work?

22 MR. WOLFF: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 And then we'll have defendant's reply in support of its
25 cross-motion. And, again, we said three weeks on that.

1           MR. SMITH: Bye-bye.
