Okay, Gersh's portion of the case is on appeal.

You made representations in your ORAP that can't be accurate.

We should have a call so I can give input to Gersh's portion other than an update on the appellate portion.

We will point out the inaccurate statements you made under oath to the Court and we can then you or Gersh can submit it?

Does that work for you?

When are you free for the joint call so we can point out the position and problems with your under oath statements.

Yes, there is a deadline to file an updated CMC statement in advance of the conference. If an attorney plans to appear for PersonalWeb at that conference, we would work with that person on a joint submission.

Best,

Mr. Gregorian I don't understand why you're worried about who's going to be appearing. Am I missing something?

Counsel,

Thank you for this forward—I believe Mr. Richards already cc'ed me on the original. Given your positions outlined below—that Stubbs Alderton doesn't represent PersonalWeb for post-judgment issues and that Mr. Richards does not intend to appear in the case unless there is motion practice—I assume that no one intends to appear for PersonalWeb at the May 13 CMC? If that is incorrect, please let me know who will be appearing.

Mr. Gersh,

You are not authorized to do anything post judgment. The case is on appeal. There is no jurisdiction with this Court pending the appeal except for collateral post judgment matters per Code.

If Mr. Gregorian, who I do not know personally but feels free to call me by my first name and the wrong one at that, does not serve my office, please forward any documents.

Your office is only engaged for the appeal. Please confirm receipt and acknowledgment of the above.

Todd

As I told you before and I will tell you again, we are not counsel for Personal Web in any of the post judgment collection proceedings, only the appeals. Nothing has changed. We have never agreed to accept service for the client, verbally or otherwise.

Ron,

Please let me know when you are retained. Until then we will continue to deal with PersonalWeb's counsel of record (the Stubbs Alderton attorneys cc'ed), who have not withdrawn from the case. The Court has ordered that PersonalWeb produce its bank and financial account information by May 7 and its remaining financial records within 30 days.

Dear Mr. Gregorian,

Our firm is going to be retained in the next day or two to handle any post judgment matters you bring. This is not my only file but we will respond as quickly as possible to any demands upon legal service.

As you know, post judgment matters are handled by the magistrate and we are not going to appear in the underlying case except for post judgment motions if for some reason we need to involve the Court.

Hopefully that won't be necessary.

Presently the case is on appeal and the divestiture rule applies.
