No, I am sorry, but that does not work. The reason we asked the Court for a conference was to address exactly this situation: that PersonalWeb's counsel continue in fact to represent it while refusing service and rejecting the Court's orders in the case based on a claim that there is no counsel of record for "post judgment matters." If PersonalWeb intends to maintain that position, we will address it with the Court on the 13th, and whoever appears for PersonalWeb may argue its positions there.

Okay, do you want to send me the joint statement and I will fill in the defense position?

I will also put you refused to have a call with Mr. Gersh and I to discuss some of the issues in your post judgment filings and refused to provide a time for a call.

Fair enough?

Mr. Gregorian,

I am not retained for the main case. you have not done anything yet that has required my appearance.

To the extent you want to file a joint report, Mr. Gersh will need my assistance on the post judgment issues.

When can you have the call? How about 1130am tomorrow?

Mr. Richards,

I am happy to have a call with any counsel of record for PersonalWeb who plan to appear at the Case Management Conference. Let's set a time once you have filed your appearance.

Best,

Mr. Gregorian,

Its been hours since I wrote you. are you now refusing to have the joint call for the status report?

I just want to document this correctly.
