RE: In re PersonalWeb Technologies, LLC et al, N.D. Cal 5:18-md-02834-BLF

Dear Messrs. Sherman and Gersh:

As you are aware, I represent behalf of Robb Evans & Associates ("Receiver") in the matter entitled Brilliant Digital Entertainment, Inc., etc., v. PersonalWeb Technologies, LLC, LASC Case No. 21VECV00575 (the "State Court Action"). I am writing to you in response to the order issued by the Honorable Beth Labson Freeman, issued June 24, 2022, Document 760 in the case entitled In re PersonalWeb Technologies, LLC, et al Patent Litigation, in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, Case No. 5:18-md-02834-BLF (the "District Court Action").

In response to the inquiry of the Court, the Receiver will not retain counsel to represent it, as the Receiver is not a party to the District Court Action. The Receiver is advised that PersonalWeb is in the process of retaining counsel to represent it in the District Court Action, which retention will be completed the week of July 25, 2022.

While the Judgment rendered in the District Court Action occurred prior to the appointment of the Receiver in the State Court Action, the Receiver is authorized to pay fees of counsel for PersonalWeb in the District Court Action, and will do so for so long as the Receiver is able to obtain the funding necessary through the State Court processes. So long as the Receiver is able to obtain authorization for the issuance of Receiver's Certificates in the State Court Action sufficient to allow: (i) the cost of administration of the Receivership Estate; (ii) the protection of the Collateral of the Receivership Estate; and (iii) to pay the expenses for PersonalWeb's counsel in this District Court Action, the Receiver will continue to pay such fees and expenses. At any point the Receiver is unable to do so, it will seek to terminate the Receivership.

Michael Sherman, Esq.
Jeffrey F. Gersh, Esq.

I hope this sufficiently responds to the Court's inquiry.

                              Very Truly Yours,

                              Michael E. Bubman
