PATENT LITIGATION.

Case No. 18-md-02834-BLF (SVK)

ORDER DENYING ALL REQUESTS TO APPEAR REMOTELY AND CONTINUING DISCOVERY HEARING

Dkt. Nos. 818, 821, 822

On December 2, 2022 this Court ordered identified parties to appear, in-person, on December 14, 2022 to address a myriad of overlapping discovery issues. Dkt. 816. The hearing is continued to either January 5 or January 12, 2023 at 10:00 a.m. The identified parties are to meet and confer and inform the Court of the selected date (by emailing SVKCRD@cand.uscourts.gov) no later than December 13, 2022. If the parties are unable to agree, the Court will select the date.

The Court further ORDERS as follows:

- Because of the interrelated nature of the disputes, all parties identified in Dkt. 816 must appear at the hearing in-person, without exception.
- All identified parties are to continue to fulfill their discovery obligations in good faith, notwithstanding the continuance or the intervening holidays. The Court expects that all outstanding productions will either be completed or substantially completed by the next hearing date. Failure to comply with this Court's orders regarding production may be addressed by monetary sanctions.
- Any identified party may file an updated status report, not to exceed two pages, 48 hours prior to the hearing.

- The December 14, 2022 hearing is vacated. Amazon’s request for a video conference with counsel on that date is denied without prejudice. The Court will set a remote hearing for counsel, in addition to the in-person hearing discussed above, as it deems necessary.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: December 9, 2022
