My recollection is that John did not know much about the secured loans. Anthony was going to send me the loans and filings to look at. I don't recall seeing them. I don't know much about the appeal issues you asked about.

I assume we have heard nothing from the Fed Circuit appeal panel? What does that tell us if anything?

What is the timing of the appeal of the fee award?

Did John McIlvery verify that the secured loans and associated UCC filing statements were in good order?
