If you or your attorney do not appear remotely on the date and time shown on the attached order, the court may make a decision on this matter based on the papers filed by the applicant without scheduling a remote hearing at which witnesses can testify and evidence will be presented.

At the hearing, the court will first conduct a conference with you or your attorney and the applicant or the applicant's attorney. The purpose of the conference is to attempt to resolve issues and to schedule a hearing for this matter, if it is required, at which witnesses can testify and evidence can be presented. If such a hearing is required, the court will schedule it, usually within two weeks of the date shown on the attached order.
