TO: Any Proper State Marshal

By the authority of the State of Connecticut, you are commanded to give the Plaintiff(s) possession of the premises above, by putting the Defendant(s) and any other Occupant(s) bound by the judgment out of possession; if the Defendant(s) and such other Occupant(s) have not removed all their possessions and personal effects then you may remove them and deliver them to the place of storage designated by the chief executive officer of the town; prior to removal you must give the chief executive officer of the town 24 hours notice of the eviction, stating the date, time and address of the eviction as well as a general description, if known, of the types and amount of property to be removed from the premises and delivered to the designated place of storage. Prior to giving notice to the chief executive officer you must use reasonable efforts to locate and notify the Defendant(s) and any other Occupant(s) bound by the judgment of the date and time the eviction is to take place and the possibility of a sale of their possessions pursuant to General Statutes § 47a-42.

Make service of a true copy upon each defendant and occupant bound by the judgment and due return within 60 days of the date hereof.

Notice To Defendant(s) (Tenant(s) and/or Occupant(s))

(To be completed by State Marshal)

Your landlord (the plaintiff) has won a judgment against you in this eviction case giving the landlord possession of the premises. This means that you must move out of the premises at the address above by this date.

Date	At (Time) _____M.	I will return to move your possessions and personal effects out of the premises and store them. Your possessions and personal effects will be stored at: _____
------	-------------------	--

If you think you have a right to stay in the premises, you should contact an attorney immediately.

If you do not move out by that date, this paper, which does not have to be handed to you personally, gives a State Marshal the legal right to move your possessions and personal effects out of the premises and deliver them to the place of storage designated by the chief executive officer of the town.

You may call: _____ to reclaim any of those possessions and personal effects and to arrange to have them given back to you. (If your possessions and personal effects are removed and stored and you do not reclaim them and pay the expense of storage within 15 days, then they may be sold by the town under General Statutes § 47a-42.)
