ORDER

The following order is entered in the above matter:

ORDER:

ORDER RE: REMOTE HEARINGS

A remote hearing has been scheduled in this case. The parties shall comply with the following procedures regarding any documentary evidence needed for the hearing. If the remote hearing is a court or jury trial, then the parties shall also comply with any Trial Management Order issued by the presiding judge, except as modified herein.

The parties shall pre-mark their own exhibits in accordance with the instructions contained in Form JD-CL-28, regarding Lists of Exhibits. Each party will place his/her exhibits in an Exhibit Binder with an Exhibit List. At least ONE (1) days before the hearing, the parties shall exchange their Exhibit Binders and provide TWO (2) copies to the clerk's office. [The parties may exchange the Exhibit Binders electronically, but must provide hard copies to the clerk's office.] Exhibits maybe delivered to the Clerk's Office at 123 Hoyt Street, Stamford, CT. Each party shall provide ALL Exhibit Binders to the witnesses they intend to call at the hearing and shall make arrangements for where the witness will be located for the remote hearing.

No document will be marked either for identification or as a full exhibit unless requested by the party and ordered by the court on the record. Any exhibit offered during the evidentiary proceedings that is not contained in an Exhibit Binder may be precluded, except for good cause shown or unless the exhibit involves rebuttal or impeachment evidence.

Before the start of evidence, the parties shall communicate with each other about whether objections exist as to the admissibility of any exhibits. Counsel shall endeavor to agree on all redactions before the start of the hearing.

Any questions about this order shall be directed to Ed O'Garro at Edmond.OGarro@jud.ct.gov.

Judicial Notice (JDNO) was sent regarding this order.
