

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

BRUHN NEWTECH, INC., et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

UNITED STATES,

Defendant.

No. 16-783C

Filed: January 17, 2019

ORDER

On January 11, 2019, the court held a pre-trial conference with the parties in the above-captioned case, during which the court and the parties' discussed defendant's motion to refer copyright registration questions to the Register of Copyrights pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 411 (2018). In defendant's motion to refer copyright registration questions to the Register of Copyrights, defendant argues that two copyright registrations "claimed by" plaintiff Bruhn NewTech, A/S "contain information known to be inaccurate, and that the inaccuracies are material." As discussed with the parties during the pre-trial conference, defendant's motion to refer copyright registration questions to the Register of Copyrights is GRANTED.

The court will refer the parties' questions to the Register of Copyrights by separate Order. As discussed with the parties during the pre-trial conference, and agreed to by the parties, the liability trial scheduled to commence on February 4, 2019 remains as scheduled. Defendant's December 26, 2019 motion to stay the above-captioned case, therefore, is MOOT.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
