In the United States Court of Federal Claims

No. 19-859 (Filed: 14 December 2020)

ORDER

On 23 November 2020, the Court issued an order scheduling claim construction briefing and directing the parties to file a joint protective order on or before 14 December 2020. See Order, ECF No. 36. On 14 December 2020, the parties filed a joint motion requesting the Court "extend the deadlines for submitting the Protective Order in this matter and several dates relating to the initial disclosures set forth in the Court of Federal Claims Patent Rules." See Joint Mot. to Extend Certain Deadlines, ECF No. 37. Specifically, the parties request the Court modify the claim construction briefing schedule with respect to plaintiffs' deadline to serve preliminary infringement contentions, plaintiffs' deadline to serve documents related to the preliminary infringement contentions, the government's deadline to serve its preliminary invalidity contentions, and the government's deadline to serve documents related to its preliminary invalidity contentions. Id.

The parties express they "have made significant progress on the negotiation of the [Protective] Order" and an extension of time to submit the joint protective order is necessary to allow for the parties to engage in "additional discussions." Id. at 2. The parties further express an extension of the deadline for plaintiffs to serve preliminary infringement contentions is necessary "to accommodate a scheduling conflict Plaintiffs' attorneys have in an unrelated matter," and "[t]he extension of the deadline for the document production accompanying the infringement contentions is [necessary] to allow for the processing of the documents." Id. Finally, the parties state the request for extensions of the deadlines for the government to serve preliminary infringement contentions and make the accompanying document production are "to account for the extension granted to [p]laintiffs." Id.

For good cause shown, the parties' joint motion is GRANTED. The parties SHALL FILE a joint protective order, or their respective positions on a proposed protective order, on or before 21 December 2020. Further, the Court adopts the following modified claim construction briefing schedule.
