ORDER

At Wilmington this 2nd day of April, 2013, having reviewed plaintiff's request (D.I. 526) for the commencement of "discovery necessary to allow the parties to be prepared to try the damages case" as soon as possible after the court's decision on the parties' post-trial motions;

IT IS ORDERED that said request is denied. The court is not inclined to change its standard practice of bifurcating damages until the issue of liability has been decided by the Federal Circuit, until such time (if ever) the Federal Circuit requires the court to abandon said practice.
