Re: Arendi S.A.R.L. v. Google LLC (13-919-JLH)
*Arendi S.A.R.L. v. Motorola Mobility LLC (12-1601-JLH)

Dear Magistrate Judge Hall:

Following the Court's status conference on May 6, 2022, the parties in the above-referenced actions have met and conferred to identify suitable trial dates. Due to trial conflicts for attorneys and witnesses, the potential trial dates that the Court offered to the parties during the May 6 status conference do not appear to be feasible.

The parties have conferred to find viable dates and have identified the week of April 24, 2023. We understand that the Court has availability to conduct a trial during that week (and has graciously penciled in these matters for that week). The parties thus respectfully request that the Court formally set the trial date for these matters for April 24, 2023, and set a pretrial conference date based on that same trial start date.

The parties additionally have agreed that certain dates should be set for (a) limited supplementation of damages expert reports (to account for the Court's summary judgment opinions and recent license agreements), and (b) completion of mediation. The parties have agreed on the following schedule for these items, subject to Court approval:

- * July 15 – Arendi to serve supplemental damages expert reports
- * August 26 – Google/Moto to serve supplemental damages rebuttal reports
- * September 23 – Arendi to serve supplemental damages reply reports
- * October 28 – Completion of supplemental damages expert discovery
- * December 21 – Deadline to complete mediation

The parties are filing a stipulation and proposed order to set this schedule, subject to the Court's approval.

Thank you for Your Honor's assistance.

The Honorable Jennifer L. Hall
