Re: Arendi S.A.R.L. v. Google LLC, C.A. No. 13-919-JLH

Dear Judge Hall:

We write to advise the Court that Google has the following disputes to present before the presentation of the following demonstratives and exhibits on Monday, April 24.

Issue/Document	Witness	Anticipated presentation time
Arendi Opening Slides 42-46 – Google objects to these slides on the basis set forth in its pending motion at D.I. 479	Opening Statement	Monday morning
Arendi Opening Slides 44-45 – These slides additionally reflect highly confidential information about the number of downloads of Google apps and device revenue. Google requests that, if Arendi is going to show or disclose these numbers in its opening statement, that the courtroom be sealed for that discussion.	Opening Statement	Monday morning
Arendi Opening Slide 48 – Google objects to this slide that purports to provide a timeline of the IPR proceedings. The IPR	Opening Statement	Monday morning proceedings are not relevant and highly prejudicial. The timeline itself is also misleading and prejudicial.

Google further notes that Google does not object to PX-393 and Hedloy Slide 4, which shows PX-393, being used as part of the invention story. Arendi represented that this is the only way in which it intends to use this document. Google objects to this document and slide being used in any way to suggest a priority date.

Respectfully,
