Re: Arendi S.A.R.L. v. Google LLC (13-919-JLH)

Dear Judge Hall:

Arendi respectfully requests leave to file a one-page reply to Google's letter dated January 19, 2024. D.I. 611. At the Court's teleconference on January 5, 2024, the Court instructed the parties to meet and confer and to each file a three-page letter regarding any unresolved issues, with Arendi's letter due on January 12 and Google's due on January 19. D.I. 609. The Court further stated at the teleconference that Arendi would be "welcome to file a motion for leave to file a one-page reply if that's needed." Hr'g. Tr. at 16:13-14.

Having reviewed Google's letter of January 19, Arendi respectfully requests leave to file a one-page reply to address issues and authorities that Google's letter raises for the first time, including Google's assertion that the Court "lacks jurisdiction" to modify the existing judgment. D.I. 611 at 1. If leave is granted, Arendi will file its letter by January 26.

Respectfully,

Neal C. Belgam
