Soyoung,

██████████ is still considering the situation but in the meantime maintains its objection to production.

If Elm is moving the court for an order to compel, why doesn't Elm also ask for the court to sign the stipulation motion for protective order? That would at least solve ██████████ issue.

Sincerely,
Alfonso

Alfonso,

Please let us know ██████████ position on the issue by COB today if possible. Any opposition to Elm's letter is due tomorrow.

Thanks,
Soyoung

Subject: RE: Elm 3DS v. Samsung

Alfonso,

Please see attached Elm's discovery letter to the Court asking for an order that Samsung produce confidential documents subject to NDAs, third party objections or other restrictions. In the letter, Elm refers to Samsung's last remaining license agreement with [REDACTED], which we have not yet produced given [REDACTED] continued objection. If [REDACTED] wishes to respond to Elm's discovery motion and be heard by the Court on the issue, please feel free to submit an opposition letter, which is due on August 25. Otherwise, please let us know if we have [REDACTED] consent to produce this agreement, so that this issue can be resolved before the discovery teleconference on September 1.

Best,
Soyoung
