

YOUNG CONAWAY

WILMINGTON
RODNEY SQUARE

NEW YORK
ROCKEFELLER CENTER

Adam W. Poff
P 302.571.6642
F 302.576.3326
apoff@ycst.com

April 27, 2022

BY CM/ECF

The Honorable Christopher J. Burke
United States District Court
District of Delaware
844 N. King Street
Wilmington, DE 19801-3568

Re: ELM 3DS Innovations, LLC v. Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., et al.,
C.A. No. 14-1430-CJB

Dear Judge Burke:

Samsung writes with an update regarding the partial resolution of its discovery disputes with Elm included in its letter brief filed April 20, 2022 (D.I. 501). After Samsung filed its letter brief, Elm produced a redacted version of Mr. Leedy's will, which Samsung sought as part of its dispute with Elm. Elm's production of this redacted version of Mr. Leedy's will resolves that portion of the parties' dispute, and Samsung hereby withdraws its request for Mr. Leedy's will. Samsung has already informed Elm that this portion of the dispute is resolved. The remainder of the issues in Samsung's letter brief are still in dispute.

Counsel for Samsung are available at the Court's convenience to submit any additional requested information or address any questions the Court may have in advance of the hearing on May 9.

Respectfully,

/s/ Adam W. Poff

Adam W. Poff (No. 5199)

cc: Counsel of Record (via CM/ECF)

29312361.1

Young Conaway Stargatt & Tavlör. LLP