Re: Meda Pharmaceuticals Inc. and Cipla Ltd. v. Apotex Inc. and Apotex Corp.,
C.A. No. 14-1453-LPS

Dear Chief Judge Stark:

I am writing on behalf of Defendants in response to Plaintiffs' May 19, 2015 letter and the April 13, 2015 Scheduling Order entered by the Court (D.I. 18).

Defendants do not oppose an earlier trial date, and Defendants would welcome the Court's guidance on whether an earlier trial date might be feasible. If earlier trial date(s) are feasible for the Court, Defendants suggest that the parties confer regarding those dates to determine: 1) whether the date(s) are feasible for the parties (so as not to create conflicts with already existing trial schedules in other cases); and, if so, 2) a sensible and mutually agreeable pretrial schedule (to allow sufficient time for discovery).

Defendants disagree with the portion of Plaintiffs letter that purports to summarize what Defendants "declined" during discussions between the parties. The details of Plaintiffs' proposal to Defendants went well beyond a simple inquiry to the Court regarding the possibility of an earlier trial date.

In any event, we respectfully thank the Court for its consideration of this matter.

Respectfully,

/s/ David E. Moore (#3983)
