NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action brought pursuant to the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2201, for a declaratory judgment of non-infringement of patents that Acceleration has asserted against Plaintiff in district court proceedings before the United States District Court for the District of Delaware.

Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment that the "Accused Products" (as defined below) do not infringe any of the following patents: United States Patent Nos. 6,701,344 ("the '344 patent") (attached as Exhibit A), 6,829,634 ("the '634 patent") (attached as Exhibit B), 6,732,147 ("the '147 patent") (attached as Exhibit C), 6,714,966 ("the '966 patent") (attached as Exhibit D), 6,920,497
("the '497 patent") (attached as Exhibit E), and 6,910,069 ("the '069 patent") (attached as Exhibit F)
(collectively, "the Asserted Patents") under the Patent Laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq.

THE PARTIES

3. Plaintiff Activision is a Delaware corporation with a principal place of business at 3100 Ocean Park Boulevard, Santa Monica, California 90405.

Upon information and belief, Defendant Acceleration is a Delaware limited liability Venue is proper in this jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400(b).

8. An actual controversy exists between Defendant and Plaintiff as to whether Plaintiff infringes the Asserted Patents.

7 9. On March 12, 2015, Acceleration filed a complaint (the "Activision Complaint") with 8 the District Court of the District of Delaware under 35 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. alleging that Activision 9 infringes the Asserted Patents through the manufacture, use, sale, importation and/or offer for sale of 10 its software products and services, including World of Warcraft, Destiny, and Call of Duty: Advanced Warfare (the "Delaware action"; all products accused in the Delaware action are referred 11 12 to in this Complaint as the "Accused Products"). The Activision Complaint further alleged that 13 Activision contributes to and induces infringement of the Asserted Patents by others. A true and 14 correct copy of the Activision Complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit G.

15 10. In the Delaware action, Defendant elected the following claims to assert against 16 Plaintiff:

Company had failed to transfer all substantial rights in the Asserted Patents to Defendant 2 Acceleration prior to the filing of the Activision Complaint. The District Court ordered that the 3 Delaware Action be dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction unless Boeing joins that action. 4 A copy of the District Court's June 3, 2016 order is attached as Exhibit H.

13. Boeing has not joined the Delaware Action, and on information and belief, does not intend to do so. Therefore, the Delaware Action should be dismissed according to the Court's June 3. 2016 Order.

8 14. On June 15, 2016, Defendant Acceleration represented to the Patent Trial and Appeal 9 Board of the United States Patent and Trademark Office that "Acceleration Bay and the Boeing 10 Company entered into an Amended and Restated Patent Purchase Agreement resolving all of the 11 issues identified by the District Court in its June 3, 2016 Order." Based on, inter alia, its prior 12 allegations of infringement and this representation, Plaintiff has a reasonable apprehension that 13 Defendant may again commence litigation against it on the Asserted Patents.

14 15. There is an immediate, real, and substantial justiciable controversy between Plaintiff 15 and Defendant as to its purported right to threaten or maintain suit for infringement of the Asserted 16 Patents, and as to the scope and enforceability thereof, and as to whether Plaintiff infringes any 17 enforceable claims of the Asserted Patents. This controversy is of such immediacy and reality as to 18 warrant declaratory relief so that the parties may ascertain their rights and duties with respect to the 19 Asserted Patents. Therefore, without waiver of any rights, including the right to challenge prudential 20 standing, Plaintiff brings this declaratory judgment action seeking a declaration that the Accused 21 Products do not infringe any of the Asserted Patents.
