¹ The numbering for the terms corresponds with the numbering in the filed Joint Claim Construction Chart (D.I. 1). The terms are listed in the order they appeared in the Declaration of Nenad Medvidović (Ex. 13 to Defendants’ Motion for Summary Judgment). The chart does not include the means-plus-function terms for which there is no dispute, or claims 26 and 28 in the Joint Claim Construction Chart that Acceleration Bay did not address in its briefing. For claim 27 in the JCCC, “computer readable medium,” in its Construction Brief, Acceleration Bay maintained its position in the JCCC of “No construction necessary: plain and ordinary meaning.” Acceleration Bay also argued that the Court should only partially adopt Defendants’ proposed construction.
