I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Bell Northern Research, LLC ("BNR") files this Motion to effect service by alternative means on Defendant Huaqin Co. Ltd. ("Huaqin"). After numerous unsuccessful attempts to secure Huaqin's participation in this litigation, BNR seeks this Court's permission to serve Huaqin through direct e-mail and through email to its U.S. Counsel. The proposed method of service is permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and it is not prohibited by the Hague Convention on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents (the "Hague Convention") or any other applicable international agreement. Moreover, the proposed service would satisfy due process, as Huaqin publicly operates websites on the Internet and utilizes e-mail means as a reliable form of contact, as does Huaqin's U.S. counsel.

Granting the instant motion will avoid unwarranted and unfair delay. With the exception of Huaqin, Plaintiff BNR has been successful in serving all of the other litigants in this case. If the Court grants Plaintiff's motion, it will enable the Huaqin Defendant to be similarly positioned as the others regarding response dates. Under these circumstances, the resources of the Court would be better served by granting Plaintiff's motion, which will result in a more streamlined litigation process.

The following table briefly summarizes BNR's efforts to date to contact Huaqin to notify them of the pending lawsuit and obtain a waiver of service from them as to the Complaint. The Waiver of Service packet referenced below includes copies of the Complaint and Exhibits thereto (Dkt. 1), Summons, Form AO 399 (Waiver of the Service of Summons), and Form AO 398 (Notice of a Lawsuit and Request to Waive Service of a Summons).
