

UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

Washington, D.C.

In the Matter of

CERTAIN WEARABLE ELECTRONIC DEVICES WITH ECG FUNCTIONALITY
AND COMPONENTS THEREOF

Inv. No. 337-TA-1266

ORDER NO. 13: GRANTING JOINT MOTION FOR LEAVE TO TAKE DEPOSITIONS OUT OF TIME

(December 10, 2021)

Complainant AliveCor, Inc. and Respondent Apple Inc. (Complainant and Respondent together the “Private Parties”), move (1266-006) for leave to take the depositions of Apple’s witnesses Theodore Framhein and Mark Rollins out of time. The Private Parties submit that due to holidays and scheduling issues, these witnesses are available on December 14 and 15, respectively, which is after the close of fact discovery. Motion at 1. The private parties further submit that no other case deadlines will be impacted, and that the Commission Investigative Staff does not oppose the joint motion.. Id.

In light of its joint and unopposed nature, the parties’ motion (1266-006) is hereby granted.

SO ORDERED.

_____
Cameron Elliot
Administrative Law Judge