Inv. No. 337-TA-1266

ORDER NO. 15: GRANTING JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO EXCHANGE EXHIBIT LISTS AND SERVE EXHIBITS

(February 4, 2022)

Complainant AliveCor, Inc. and Respondent Apple Inc. (Complainant and Respondent together the “Private Parties”), move (1266-009) for leave to amend the deadlines for the exchange of exhibit lists and the deadline for the submission and service of exhibits set forth in Order No. 9.

The parties request the expert discovery be extended as follows:

- The date for the exchange of opening exhibit lists be extended from February 4, 2022, to February 7, 2022;
- The date for the submission and service of exhibits be extended from February 8, 2022, to February 10, 2022.

Mot. at 1.

The Private Parties submit that “the short requested extensions would only affect the deadlines listed above. Given that expert discovery ends on February 4, 2022, extending these dates would allow the parties additional time to account for expert depositions and related exhibits. It would also allow the parties additional time to de-duplicate and prepare the joint exhibit list.” Id. at 1. The private parties further submit that the Commission Investigative Staff does not oppose the joint motion. Id. at 2.

In light of its joint and unopposed nature, the parties' motion (1266-009) is hereby Granted.

SO ORDERED.
