

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF KANSAS

LOGANTREE LP

Plaintiff,

v.

GARMIN INTERNATIONAL, INC. and GARMIN USA, INC.

Defendants.

Case No. 6:17-CV-01217

PLAINTIFF LOGANTREE'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT GARMIN'S MOTION TO VACATE DEADLINES

Pursuant to the Court's Order dated September 7, 2021, the undersigned counsel on behalf of Plaintiff LoganTree ("Plaintiff" or "LoganTree") provide this response to Defendant Garmin's ("Defendant" or "Garmin") Notice to the Court and Motion to Vacate Deadlines. The undersigned counsel confirm that Theodore Brann, LoganTree's principal officer, passed away the morning of August 31, 2021. The undersigned counsel confirm that, prior to Theodore's passing, the parties were engaged in the meet and confer process and were discussing resolution of all issues currently pending before the Court. It is also believed that the parties were making good progress on resolution of these issues but were unable to complete that process due to the death of LoganTree's principal officer.

Garmin's request that the Court vacate the current deadlines from its August 5 Order (Dkt. 138), as well as the remaining deadlines in the case (Dkt. 110) or, alternatively extend the deadlines under Local Rule 6.1 to allow LoganTree time to appoint a new principal officer, is not opposed. Also, Garmin's request that the Court grant the parties 30 days to provide a status report, so that LoganTree may regroup with its new principal officer and the parties can resume their meet and confer process, is not opposed.

For the same reasons discussed above, it is respectfully requested that the Court grant a continuance of the September 14 in-person hearing set forth in the August 5 Order (Dkt. 138).

Respectfully submitted by:
