Applicable legal provision

Section 191 of the Dutch Code of Civil Procedure (old)

Essence

Can a patent attorney request to be excused from giving evidence as a witness? In this case, no.

Summary

The patent attorney/witness cannot derive a lawyer-client privilege from Article 8 of the Patent Attorney Regulations (Octrooigmachtingen-Reglement) 1936, Bulletin of Acts and Decrees 642, as the case at issue (which deals with the question whether a licence agreement was concluded between the parties) does not relate to knowledge obtained in their specific capacity as patent attorney.

Nor can the patent attorney/witness derive a lawyer-client privilege from the Rules of Conduct for patent attorneys. If the patent attorney operates outside the scope of their specific duties — rendering assistance in patent applications — it can definitely not be upheld that the performance of their duties with regard to ancillary activities, such as the ones at issue here, involves a public interest to the effect that they are entitled to confidentiality - also vis-a-vis the court - which outweighs the compelling interest of fact-finding in court.

Essentie

Kan octrooigemachtigde zich als getuige verschonen? I.c. neen.

Samenvatting

Aan art. 8 Octrooigemachtigen-Reglement 1936, Stb. 642, kan de octrooigemachtigde/getuige geen recht van verschoning ontnemen, aangezien het i.c. (vraag of er al dan niet tussen partijen een licentieovereenkomst tot stand is gekomen) niet gaat om wetenschap verkregen in zijn specifieke hoedanigheid van octrooigemachtigde.

De octrooigemachtigde/getuige kan evenmin een recht tot verschoning ontnemen aan de Gedragsregels voor de octrooigemachtigden. Daar waar de octrooigemachtigde treedt buiten de kring van zijn specifieke werkzaamheden — het verlenen van bijstand bij de octrooiaanvraag — kan zeker niet worden gezegd dat met de uitoefening van zijn taak ten aanzien van nevenwerkzaamheden als de onderhavige een zodanig maatschappelijk belang dat geheimhouding — ook tegenover de rechter — meebrengt, is gemoeid, dat daarvoor moet wijken het zwaarwegend belang dat in rechte de waarheid aan het licht komt.
