

Exhibit A

Exhibit A - Index of Documents Proposed for Sealing

Exhibit No.	Description of Confidential Materials	Designation	Designation
1	Letter of Request for Assistance from Spanish Authorities (highlighted portions).  The highlighted portions reference a supplier relationship, the existence of which was disclosed to Neo via discovery disclosures and documents produced by a Defendant and designated “Highly Confidential – Attorney’s Eyes Only.” The highlighted portions also reveal the identities of the products supplied in the course of the same.	The highlighted portions reference information contained in materials designated Highly Confidential – Attorney’s Eyes Only.	The D refere portio mark
2	Letter of Request for Assistance from Chinese Authorities (highlighted portions).  The highlighted portions reference supplier relationships, the existence of which were disclosed to Neo via documents produced by a Defendant and a third-party supplier, and which were designated “Highly Confidential – Attorney’s Eyes Only.” The highlighted portions also reveal the identities of the products supplied in the course of the same.	The highlighted portions reference information contained in materials designated Highly Confidential – Attorney’s Eyes Only.	The D refere portio mark and th suppl this a overs refere portio mark

<sup>1</sup> While Neo is aware that LR 5.3(b)(3)(A)(iii) requires the party moving to file materials under seal to be the party who designated the material in question as confidential, here there is a dilemma in that giving the relevant entities in a public filing would necessarily reveal the existence of the supplier relationship. Neo is seeking to protect in the first place. Neo believes that their identities are readily ascertainable from the descriptions provided herein.

Exhibit A - Index of Documents Proposed for Sealing

Exhibit No.	Description of Confidential Materials	Designation	Designation
3	Letter of Request for Assistance from Luxembourgish Authorities (highlighted portions).  The highlighted portions reference supplier relationships, the existence of which were disclosed to Neo via documents produced by a third party and designated “Highly Confidential – Attorney’s Eyes Only.” The highlighted portions also reveal the identities of the products supplied in the course of the same.	The highlighted portions reference information contained in materials designated Highly Confidential – Attorney’s Eyes Only.	The highlighted portions reference information contained in materials designated Highly Confidential – Attorney’s Eyes Only.