Second Amended Judgment

1 the defendant if he wished to change his plea to No Contest to Count 1 and the defendant
2 replied that he did and defendant then pleaded No Contest; the Court questioned the defendant 3 and determined that the change of plea was being made freely, knowingly and voluntarily in 4 all respects; the Court inquired of the State if there was a factual basis for the plea; upon 5 hearing the statement from the State the Court found there is a factual basis for defendant's 6 No Contest plea; the Court heard statements from counsel regarding the sentence and 7 offered the defendant an opportunity to make a statement in his own behalf and at the 8 conclusion thereof the Court being fully advised in the premises:
9
