Overview of FI-GLX

This section contains the following topics:
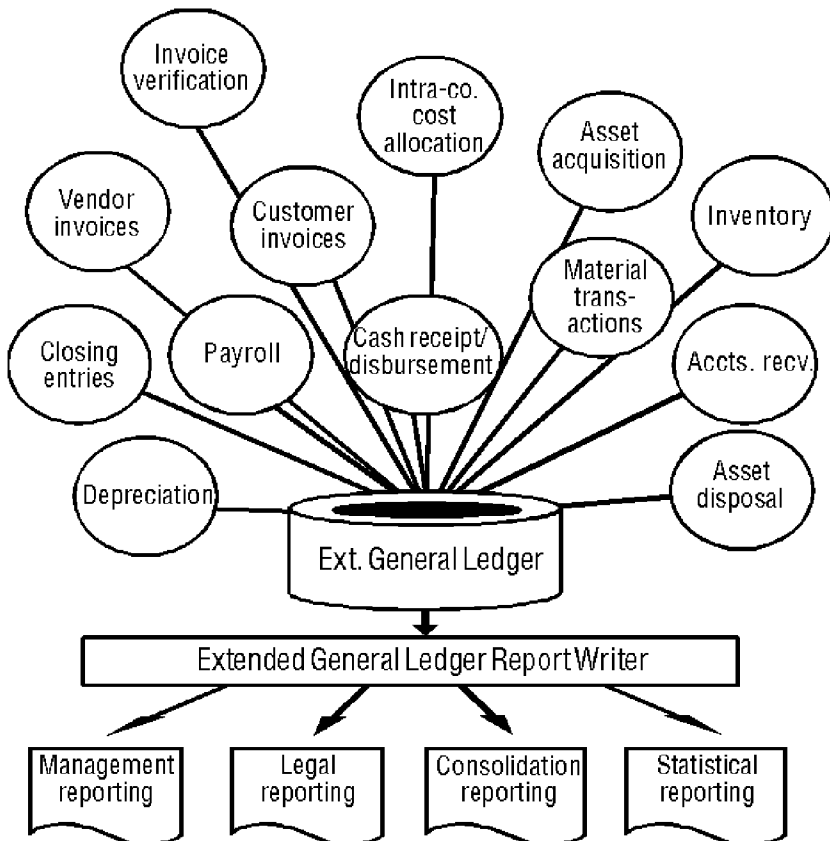

What is Extended General Ledger?

SAP's integrated product line covers the entire commercial software needs of customers from a wide variety of industries.   Within the integrated SAP software package, you can integrate nearly all aspects of your business.

Each of the SAP products meets your reporting requirements using various reporting techniques. In some situations, you may require more information than is provided in an individual application.

Example:

You may want to combine or summarize information from many different application areas---at levels of detail not provided by an individual application.   This information is available, but only if you access the systems that contain the information.

The FI-GLX System is designed to provide summary information from multiple applications at a level of detail that you define.   By using the variety of modules provided by FI-GLX, you can combine, summarize, allocate, and plan data that originate from other SAP and external systems.

With FI-GLX, you can accumulate and report on information across the entire SAP System without compromising the high level of integration you have already achieved.   The operating functions of the individual applications remain unchanged when you add the FI-GLX System.
