The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. and PNC Bank, National Association

(collectively "PNC") and Maxim Integrated Products, Inc. ("Maxim") respectfully move this Court for a two-week extension of time for PNC to file Non-Infringement Contentions and for a bilateral extension of the discovery period of two weeks. In support hereof, the parties state as

2. PNC and Maxim have already agreed to bilateral extensions of time to respond to currently pending discovery between the parties and have also agreed not to object on the basis of timeliness in the event of subsequent service of responses.

3. In view of the parties' anticipated settlement and to afford the parties time to complete settlement before the passing of any case deadlines, the parties respectfully request that the date for PNC to serve Non-Infringement Contentions, which are currently due on April 16, 2014, per D.I. 749, be extended until April 30, 2014. This represents a 2-week extension of time.

4. As discussed at the April 2, 2014 Hearing before Your Honor, the parties also respectfully request a bilateral extension of the fact discovery period (to apply to discovery between PNC and Maxim only), which is currently set to close on May 16, 2014, per D.I. 749, until May 30, 2014. This represents a 2-week extension of time.

5. WHEREFORE, the parties respectfully request that the deadline for PNC to serve Non-Infringement Contentions be set for April 30, 2014, and the end of fact discovery be set for May 30, 2014.

Respectfully Submitted,

Date: April 4, 2014
