17	ANTHONY WECHSELBERGER, DEFENDANT'S WITNESS, SWORN
18	DIRECT EXAMINATION
19	BY MR. BATCHELDER:
20	Q. Good morning, sir.
21	A. Good morning.
22	Q. Would you please introduce yourself to the jury?
23	A. Good morning. My name is Anthony Wechselberger.
24	Q. And what do you do for a living, sir?
25	A. I'm a technology consultant, and I provide system and engineering services to the industry, and I assist in legal -- the legal community as I'm doing today.

Most of my work -- technical work revolves around systems and equipment that distributes multimedia information, and I've been doing this kind of work for about 35 years.

- Q. What do you do when you're not working?
- A. Well, I'm married. And between my wife and myself, we have 6 kids and 12 grandkids; and that keeps us pretty busy.

We live in Southern California. We like the outdoors.

Nancy and I spend a lot of time in the deserts and mountains out there.

- Q. Why are you here today, sir?
- A. I've been asked to provide opinions on the issues of infringement; that is, whether or not the accused products infringe the Smartflash patents.

I've also been asked to provide my opinions on the validity of the asserted patent.

- Q. What did you study in school?
- A. I have a Bachelor of Science degree in electrical engineering from the University of Arizona. That's 1974.
- I have a Master's degree in electrical engineering conferred by the San Diego State University, 1979.

I'm also a graduate of the executive program for scientists and engineers. That's conferred from the University of California at San Diego. That was 1984.

- Q. And even outside of school, what work have you done related to the technologies involved in this case?
- A. For virtually all of my professional career, I've been involved in communications systems. Through the decade of the '80s and '90s, I was executive vice president and chief technology officer at a couple of companies that produced systems and equipment for television broadcasting applications, cable TV, and satellite broadcasting applications.

When I started my consulting company in 1999 and worked for myself, I continued in that area and expanding into areas of all kinds of multimedia distribution, including newer technologies, such as those use in the Internet and wireless spaces.

- Q. All right, sir. And have you given talks and presentations in this space, publications?
- A. Yes. Many panel presentations. I've authored magazine articles, approximately 30 over the years.
- Q. Do you have any patents in this area?
- A. Yes. I'm the named inventor on two patents, both of which have to do with the control and management of information and communications systems, mostly entertainment types of information.
 - Q. And what types of engineering work do you do?
