UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE BEFORE THE PATENT TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

----X

TD AMERITRADE HOLDING CORPORATION, TD AMERITRADE, INC., and TD AMERITRADE ONLINE HOLDINGS CORP., Petitioners, V.

TRADING TECHNOLOGIES INTERNATIONAL, INC.

Patent Owner,

----X

Case CBM2014-00131

Patent 7,533,056

Case CBM2014-00133

Patent 7,676,411

Case CBM2014-00135

Patent 6,772,132

Case CBM2014-00137

Patent 7,685,055

CONFERENCE CALL

Tuesday, January 20, 2015

BEFORE:

SALLY C. MEDLEY

MEREDITH C. PETRAVICK

PHILIP J. HOFFMANN

REPORTED BY:

DANIELLE GRANT

JOB NO. 13270

	Page 2		Page 4
1	rage z		Page 4
1 2	APPEARANCES:	2	briefly follow up on a question you had
3	STERNE KESSLER GOLDSTEIN & FOX	3	asked during our initial conference
4	1100 New York Ave. NW Suite 600 Washington, DC 20005	4	call. You asked whether the District
5	Washington, DC 20003	5	Court litigation had been stayed, and
_	BY: JONATHAN STRANG, ESQ., of Counsel	6	we did not know at the time. We have
6 7	jstrang@skgf.com LORI GORDON, ESQ., of Counsel	7	since learned, and now report that
	lgordon@skgf.com	8	petitioner moved to stay the District
8	ROBERT SOKOHL, ESQ., of Counsel	9	Court litigation based on these
9	rsokohl@skgf.com	10	proceedings. But to our knowledge the
10	RICK BEMBEN, ESQ., of Counsel	11	motion has not been ruled on and the
11	rbemben@skgf.com	12	litigation is still ongoing.
12		13	We do note, however, that the
13	FINNEGAN, HENDERSON, FARABOW, GARRETT & DUNNER, LLP	14	defendants in another litigation,
14	901 New York Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20001-4413	15	regarding the 132 and 304 patents, CQG,
15		16	also recently moved to stay that
16	BY: JOSHUA GOLDBERG, ESQ., of Counsel joshua.goldberg@finnegan.com	17	litigation based on these proceedings.
17	CORY BELL, ESQ., of Counsel	18	That motion was denied and the Judge
1.0	cory.bell@finnegan.com	19	has since indicated that she's going to
18	ERIKA ARNER, ESQ., of Counsel	20	issue a ruling on the validity of the
19	erika.arner@finnegan.com	21	claims under Section 101 by the end of
20	KEVIN RODKEY, ESQ., of Counsel	22	•
21	kevin.rodkey@finnegan.com	23	February.
22			And to your previous request that
23 24		24	we file mandatory notices about the
25		25	happenings in related litigation, is
	Page 3		Page 5
2	MR. STRANG: Good afternoon. I'm	2	this something that you would want us
3	Jon Strang backup counsel for TD	3	to file a mandatory notice about?
4	Ameritrade. With me I have Rob Sokohl	4	JUDGE MEDLEY: This is a
5	and Rick Bemben who has not entered in,	5	third-party that's not involved here
6	also Lori Gordon who is lead counsel	6	MR. GOLDBERG: Right.
7	across all of the proceedings.	7	JUDGE MEDLEY: that's involved
8	JUDGE MEDLEY: All right. Then	8	in the litigation involving two of the 9	for the patent owner.	9	involved patents in those cases; is
10	MR. GOLDBERG: Joshua Goldberg for	10	that correct?
11	patent owner, and I think we have Cory	11	MR. GOLDBERG: Yeah.
12	Bell on the line and Erika Arner, and	12	JUDGE MEDLEY: Yeah, I think we
13	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	13
	also Kevin Rodkey.		would want to know what the ruling is.
14	JUDGE MEDLEY: Okay, great. So	14	I don't know that we would use it. I
15	this conference call is in regard to	15 16	think we would want to know if and when
1 /	CDN 2014 00121 122 125 1127 W
16	CPN 2014-00131, 133, 135, and 137. We		a ruling comes out. You don't have to
17	understand that the patent owner	17	file it, just let us know and we'll
17 18	understand that the patent owner requested this call initially. We'll	17 18	file it, just let us know and we'll have our paralegal get the decision.
17 18 19	understand that the patent owner requested this call initially. We'll let the patent owner begin, explain	17 18 19	file it, just let us know and we'll have our paralegal get the decision. MR. GOLDBERG: Okay, we'll go
17 18 19 20	understand that the patent owner requested this call initially. We'll let the patent owner begin, explain their situation with regard to	17 18 19 20	file it, just let us know and we'll have our paralegal get the decision. MR. GOLDBERG: Okay, we'll go ahead and do that.
17 18 19 20 21	understand that the patent owner requested this call initially. We'll let the patent owner begin, explain their situation with regard to discovery that they seek from the	17 18 19 20 21	file it, just let us know and we'll have our paralegal get the decision. MR. GOLDBERG: Okay, we'll go ahead and do that. JUDGE MEDLEY: I appreciate the
17 18 19 20 21 22	understand that the patent owner requested this call initially. We'll let the patent owner begin, explain their situation with regard to discovery that they seek from the petitioner.	17 18 19 20 21 22	file it, just let us know and we'll have our paralegal get the decision. MR. GOLDBERG: Okay, we'll go ahead and do that. JUDGE MEDLEY: I appreciate the update.
17 18 19 20 21 22 23	understand that the patent owner requested this call initially. We'll let the patent owner begin, explain their situation with regard to discovery that they seek from the petitioner. MR. GOLDBERG: Thank you, your	17 18 19 20 21 22 23	file it, just let us know and we'll have our paralegal get the decision. MR. GOLDBERG: Okay, we'll go ahead and do that. JUDGE MEDLEY: I appreciate the update. MR. GOLDBERG: As to the matters
17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	understand that the patent owner requested this call initially. We'll let the patent owner begin, explain their situation with regard to discovery that they seek from the petitioner. MR. GOLDBERG: Thank you, your Honor.	17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	file it, just let us know and we'll have our paralegal get the decision. MR. GOLDBERG: Okay, we'll go ahead and do that. JUDGE MEDLEY: I appreciate the update.
17 18 19 20 21 22 23	understand that the patent owner requested this call initially. We'll let the patent owner begin, explain their situation with regard to discovery that they seek from the petitioner. MR. GOLDBERG: Thank you, your	17 18 19 20 21 22 23	file it, just let us know and we'll have our paralegal get the decision. MR. GOLDBERG: Okay, we'll go ahead and do that. JUDGE MEDLEY: I appreciate the update. MR. GOLDBERG: As to the matters

2 (Pages 2 to 5)

	Daga (Page 0
	Page 6		Page 8
2	reference serves as the basis for all	2	requesting permission to file motions
3	the instituted prior art grounds in	3	to strike the TSE reference, and for
4	proceedings related to D055 and 056	4	immediate summary judgment on all the
5	patents. The petitioner requested	5	prior grounds, in order to simplify the
6	rehearing of the board's denial of	6	proceedings going forward.
7	prior art grounds regarding the TSE	7	JUDGE MEDLEY: Thank you. So,
8	reference and the proceeding related to	8	petitioner, we'll let you speak. I'm
9	the '304 patents. And I don't think	9	wondering why no cross?
10	that's been ruled on yet.	10	MR. STRANG: Your Honor, there's
11	The TSE reference is a Japanese	11	several reasons. First a little
12	book, and the translation has been	12	background to correct what's going on.
13	disputed in multiple proceedings,	13	We hired TransPerfect, one of the
14	including District Court litigations.	14	leading translation firms in the
15	Petitioner filed a translation of the	15	country to translate the TSE reference.
16	TSE in each of the proceedings. But	16	And in accordance 42.63(b) we submitted
17	petitioner did not file an affidavit	17	an affidavit attesting the accuracy of
18	attesting to the accuracy of the	18	the translation, and it's with a very
19	translation to sufficient to comply	19	similar affidavit there in several
20	with Rule 42.63(b). The only affidavit	20	other cases, including one I'll discuss
21	filed failed to establish the affiant	21	very shortly. That affidavit of
22	had any personal knowledge or expertise	22	accuracy is Exhibit 1005 in the 131
23	on the matter.	23	case; 1008 in the 133 case; 1014 in the
24	We objected and the petitioner	24	135 case; and 1009 in the 137 case.
25	served us with five additional	25	After institution Trading Technologies
	Page 7		Page 9
2	declarations on the matter, one by a
_	declarations on the matter, one by a	2	objected to the affidavit only on the
3	manager who arranged for the	3	objected to the affidavit only on the grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit
3	manager who arranged for the	3	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit
3 4	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four	3 4	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal
3 4 5	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document	3 4 5	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely
3 4 5 6	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different	3 4 5 6	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that
3 4 5 6 7	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those	3 4 5 6 7 8 9	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal
3 4 5 6 7 8	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition	3 4 5 6 7 8	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual
3 4 5 6 7 8 9	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified.
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards,
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized.	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized. This is a routine discovery issue, your	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards, that they have their own internal testing certification process. She
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized. This is a routine discovery issue, your Honor. The petitioner refused to make	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards, that they have their own internal
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized. This is a routine discovery issue, your Honor. The petitioner refused to make the declarants available for	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards, that they have their own internal testing certification process. She
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized. This is a routine discovery issue, your Honor. The petitioner refused to make the declarants available for deposition.	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards, that they have their own internal testing certification process. She named the four translators who are spread all over the place TransPerfect is a global company
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized. This is a routine discovery issue, your Honor. The petitioner refused to make the declarants available for deposition. It's our view that the declaration	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards, that they have their own internal testing certification process. She named the four translators who are spread all over the place TransPerfect is a global company some in California, one in Oregon, one
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized. This is a routine discovery issue, your Honor. The petitioner refused to make the declarants available for deposition. It's our view that the declaration should be given no weight, since we	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards, that they have their own internal testing certification process. She named the four translators who are spread all over the place TransPerfect is a global company some in California, one in Oregon, one in the United Kingdom. Trading
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized. This is a routine discovery issue, your Honor. The petitioner refused to make the declarants available for deposition. It's our view that the declaration should be given no weight, since we have no ability to challenge them,	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards, that they have their own internal testing certification process. She named the four translators who are spread all over the place TransPerfect is a global company some in California, one in Oregon, one in the United Kingdom. Trading Technologies then demanded to
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized. This is a routine discovery issue, your Honor. The petitioner refused to make the declarants available for deposition. It's our view that the declaration should be given no weight, since we have no ability to challenge them, which basically defeats their purpose.	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards, that they have their own internal testing certification process. She named the four translators who are spread all over the place TransPerfect is a global company some in California, one in Oregon, one in the United Kingdom. Trading Technologies then demanded to cross-examine the translators. We did
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized. This is a routine discovery issue, your Honor. The petitioner refused to make the declarants available for deposition. It's our view that the declaration should be given no weight, since we have no ability to challenge them, which basically defeats their purpose. With nothing of weight to dispute the disputed translations, TSE should be struck from the record, and as a result	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards, that they have their own internal testing certification process. She named the four translators who are spread all over the place TransPerfect is a global company some in California, one in Oregon, one in the United Kingdom. Trading Technologies then demanded to cross-examine the translators. We did not say that we refused to make them
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized. This is a routine discovery issue, your Honor. The petitioner refused to make the declarants available for deposition. It's our view that the declaration should be given no weight, since we have no ability to challenge them, which basically defeats their purpose. With nothing of weight to dispute the disputed translations, TSE should be	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards, that they have their own internal testing certification process. She named the four translators who are spread all over the place TransPerfect is a global company some in California, one in Oregon, one in the United Kingdom. Trading Technologies then demanded to cross-examine the translators. We did not say that we refused to make them available, we said that it's not
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized. This is a routine discovery issue, your Honor. The petitioner refused to make the declarants available for deposition. It's our view that the declaration should be given no weight, since we have no ability to challenge them, which basically defeats their purpose. With nothing of weight to dispute the disputed translations, TSE should be struck from the record, and as a result	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards, that they have their own internal testing certification process. She named the four translators who are spread all over the place TransPerfect is a global company some in California, one in Oregon, one in the United Kingdom. Trading Technologies then demanded to cross-examine the translators. We did not say that we refused to make them available, we said that it's not routine discovery under the rule. And,
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	manager who arranged for the translation, I guess, and four translators since it's a big document and they broke up across different translators. We requested that those declarants be produced for deposition pursuant to rule 42.51(b)(1)(ii) which specifies that cross-examination of affidavit testimony is authorized. This is a routine discovery issue, your Honor. The petitioner refused to make the declarants available for deposition. It's our view that the declaration should be given no weight, since we have no ability to challenge them, which basically defeats their purpose. With nothing of weight to dispute the disputed translations, TSE should be struck from the record, and as a result patent owner should be entitled to	3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	grounds that Mrs. O'Connell's affidavit did not establish sufficient personal knowledge. In response we timely served supplemental evidence that established sufficient personal knowledge and that the individual translators were qualified. In short, she testified that TransPerfect's translation process is certified by two different standards, that they have their own internal testing certification process. She named the four translators who are spread all over the place TransPerfect is a global company some in California, one in Oregon, one in the United Kingdom. Trading Technologies then demanded to cross-examine the translators. We did not say that we refused to make them available, we said that it's not

	Page 10		Page 12
2	issue twice before.	2	right to the arguments of obviousness.
3	On August 14, 2000 in Mexichem	3	Specifically, the affidavit that was
4	Amanco Holdings v. Honeywell	4	originally submitted in that case,
5	International, the Board held that	5	which is again IPR 2014-0015, Exhibit
6	cross-examinations of translators is	6	1005 was the original affidavit, and
7	not routine discovery. That's IPR	7	you can see that the declarant didn't
8	2013-0056, Paper 29, Page 3. And the	8	sign it herself because it had someone
9	cite of that is in the e-mail chain	9	else's initials next to the signature.
10	between the parties that we supplied to	10	On May 16, 2014 a month after the
11	in our e-mail.	11	institution decision, the petitioner
12	In that case, just like here, the	12	provided a new translation and a
13	certification of accuracy was from a	13	replacement declaration that modified
14	manager of a translation company and in	14	the submitted translation. The
15	particular that affidavit was from the	15	signature is clearly different, you can
16	CEO of Legal Translation.bis, which is	16	compare them Exhibit 1047, which is the
17	not nearly as reputable or well-known	17	e-mail excuse me, the second
18	as TransPerfect. The CEO did not name	18	declaration. That was served in an
19	the translator or contend that he	19	e-mail that's shown dated May 19th
20	translated the documents himself. On	20	which is Exhibit 1085. And in that
21	the contrary, he testified that the	21	declaration the translator admitted
22	translation was made by "a competent	22	that some things had changed, including
23	translator" and "to the best of our	23	key terms in the reference. For
24	knowledge and belief is an accurate	24	example, had retranslated a section
25	translation". His affidavit that was	25	from excipient to quote, "lyophilized
	translation. This arritary that was		from excipient to quote, Tyophinized
	Page 11		Page 13
2	satisfactory for that Board, in	2	powder's supporting agent". And that
3	substance, even less trustworthy than	3	made a difference to patentability.
4	our affidavit of accuracy.	4	The situation in that case was
5	Now, one time before that the	5	recounted in the transcript of the
6	Board went the other way, but there	6	conference call, and that transcript is
7	were some very important extenuating	7	Exhibit 2154. Wyeth explained at Pages
8	circumstances. On January 1, 2014 in	8	5 and 8 why the translation mattered to
9	Apotex v. Wyeth that's IPR 2014-00115	9	obviousness in the case, showing the
10	the Board agreed that the deposition of	10	Board and the expert relied on
11	the translator was allowed. But in	11	mistranslated sections. And in
12	that case the patent owner timely	12	particular the Board, they pointed out
13	objected to the translation and	13	that the Chinese reference, the only
14	quality, pointing out two crucial	14	reference at issue, had two
15	substantive mistranslation that went to	15	mistranslations. One going to whether
16	the merit. The original affidavit was	16	or not it was lactose or other key
17	defective on its face. It wasn't	17	ingredients, and another going to what
18	signed by the declarant, it was signed	18	were the excipients.
19	by somebody else signing the	19	JUDGE MEDLEY: Let me stop you. I
20	declarant's name. The petitioner had	20	don't know that we need to get into
21	submitted a second affidavit and second	21	that other case.
22	translation after institution with a	22	Is it your position, unless it's
23	signature that didn't match the first,	23	meritorious unless it was they're
24	and it purportedly changed the	24	challenging the translation itself then
25	translation of some key terms that led	25	maybe we should allow İ

4 (Pages 10 to 13)

	Page 14		Page 16
2	cross-examination, but just as a	2	according to my understanding become
3	general routine it shouldn't be	3	outcome determinative in some previous
4	considered routine discovery, is that	4	District Court litigation and also in
5	your position?	5	an EPO opposition case.
6	MR. STRANG: Yes, your Honor,	6	Now, here the translation on its
7	that's our position. Here where they	7	face has internal inconsistencies that
8	have not identified any specific	8	I imagine were created because they
9	translations that mattered to this	9	were splitting it amongst different
10	case, we don't see any reason that we	10	translators. So, for example, when you
11	should have to go through the expense	11	look at the table of contents of the
12	of getting five translators and a	12	translation, it will say that Section
13	program manager flown all over the	13	13-2 is, Notice Input Destination. But
14	place, at least one is out of the	14	then if you go to Section 13-2 of the
15	country, that just doesn't seem in the	15	book, that's actually called, About
16	interest of an inexpensive alternative	16	Notification Output Destination.
17	to litigation.	17	JUDGE MEDLEY: You're questioning
18	JUDGE MEDLEY: All right. I think	18	the accuracy of the translation?
19	I understand. I have a few questions.	19	MR. GOLDBERG: Yeah, we would like
20	First of all to the patent owner,	20	to pursue that now. How the
21	you objected to the translation for the	21	translation was done; how it was
22	reasons you stated, that the	22	divided between these different
23	certification wasn't in compliance of	23	translators the way it was divided.
24	42.63(b). They submitted their	24	Was there anything funny going on. We
25	evidence in response to the objection,	25	think we should be able to explore unink we should be uble to explore
	Page 15		Page 17
2	and it has been served, but not filled.	2	those issues because they could be
3	It's not technically part of the case.	3	determinative. Now, at the same time
4	Now, does that overcome the original	4	we don't think that we should have to
5	objection. That's my first question.	5	basically prep the attorneys for TD on
6	MR. GOLDBERG: Yes. It's not	6	exactly the questions we're going to
7	something considered in great detail,	7	ask. We shouldn't have to tell them
8	but I would be inclined to say, yes, it	8	here's what all the different little
9	probably should.	9	problems are so that you guys can go
10	JUDGE MEDLEY: Okay. Then I'm	10	back and come up with kinds of
11	wondering if it does, why, if there's	11	solutions so that when we depose your
12	nothing challenging, if it kind of	12	translator they all have these
13	addresses the original concern you had,	13	pre-written answers to give us. We
14	then why do you need to cross-examine	14	should be able to impeach them as would
15	the translator?	15	be the case with any other declarant
16	MR. GOLDBERG: The reason that we	16	bringing in whatever documents that we
17	had objected in the first place is	17	need in order to impeach and see if the
18	because we wanted to know how this was	18	translations are credible or not.
19	translated, and the only way that we	19	JUDGE MEDLEY: Okay. Do you know
20	can figure that out is by deposing the	20	if you're going to propose having your
21	translators.	21	own translations done?
22	The reason why that matters is	22	MR. GOLDBERG: We have not
23	because the translation as I mentioned	23	determined yet whether we're going to
24	before has been heavily disputed over	24	have a complete translation of our own.
25	the years, and has actually	25	We may have translations of the

DOCKET

Explore Litigation Insights

Docket Alarm provides insights to develop a more informed litigation strategy and the peace of mind of knowing you're on top of things.

Real-Time Litigation Alerts

Keep your litigation team up-to-date with real-time alerts and advanced team management tools built for the enterprise, all while greatly reducing PACER spend.

Our comprehensive service means we can handle Federal, State, and Administrative courts across the country.

Advanced Docket Research

With over 230 million records, Docket Alarm's cloud-native docket research platform finds what other services can't. Coverage includes Federal, State, plus PTAB, TTAB, ITC and NLRB decisions, all in one place.

Identify arguments that have been successful in the past with full text, pinpoint searching. Link to case law cited within any court document via Fastcase.

Analytics At Your Fingertips

Learn what happened the last time a particular judge, opposing counsel or company faced cases similar to yours.

Advanced out-of-the-box PTAB and TTAB analytics are always at your fingertips.

API

Docket Alarm offers a powerful API (application programming interface) to developers that want to integrate case filings into their apps.

LAW FIRMS

Build custom dashboards for your attorneys and clients with live data direct from the court.

Automate many repetitive legal tasks like conflict checks, document management, and marketing.

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Litigation and bankruptcy checks for companies and debtors.

E-DISCOVERY AND LEGAL VENDORS

Sync your system to PACER to automate legal marketing.

