3	JUDGE PETRAVICK: This is the conference
4	call for CBM2015-00161, '00172, '00179, '00181, and

21	Mr. Sokohl, are you going to speak on

1 MR. SOKOHL: I am, Your Honor.

JUDGE PETRAVICK: All right. Patent

Owner, you requested the call, so we'll hear from you first.

MS. EMSLEY: Thank you, Your Honor.

In the Board's order on July 19th, the Board suggested that supplemental information and supplemental briefing would be the appropriate avenue for TT to seek supplemental information that we originally sought in our motion for additional discovery filed in June.

And we understand that there are two prongs for showing that supplemental information under 37 CFR 42.233 is appropriate, that the information reasonably could not have been obtained earlier and that the consideration of the supplemental information would be in the interest of justice. And I would like to address both prongs.

JUDGE PETRAVICK: Could I interrupt you for one minute?

MS. EMSLEY: Yes.

JUDGE PETRAVICK: I forgot to ask, is there a court reporter on the line?

REPORTER: Yes, there is.

JUDGE PETRAVICK: Okay. Thank you.

Go ahead and continue, Ms. Emsley.

MS. EMSLEY: Okay. Sure.

So with respect to the first prong, TT couldn't have submitted this evidence previously. As you know, there's always been a protective order issued that stood in the way of us using the documents and transcripts that we're seeking in TT's Patent Owner Responses.

TT asked several times of the Petitioners for permission to use the documents produced in litigation in the PTAB. And Petitioners have always objected to the use of the documents.

Any agreement from Petitioners has always been contingent on the Board expressly authorizing the use in the PTAB. So we pursued relief, both in the District Court and in the PTAB simultaneously.
