Q Great. I'll go over a few of the ground rules here. As you can probably already tell, I'll be asking some questions. It's just important that you give audible answers so that the court reporter can take down your testimony and also so that the video can pick up your voice.

And from time to time, your attorney may object to questions I ask. It's for matters of form and it's to be ruled on later on. And so if you understand the question, you can go ahead and answer it unless your attorney instructs you otherwise. But generally you can still go ahead and answer the question if you understand it.

And if you don't understand a question, feel free to ask me to repeat it or clarify. And, conversely, if I ask a question, you answer it, I'll -we can assume that you understood it. Is that fair? A Sure. Q Okay. And also I'll try and take a break every
