4 DAVID B. STEWART, Ph.D. called as a witness in the
5 above-entitled cause, being
6 first duly sworn, testified
7 as follows:

8
9 E X A M I N A T I O N

10 BY MR. McLEOD:

11 Q. Good morning, Dr. Stewart. My name is Rick
12 McLeod. I'm an attorney for ABB. You've probably been 13 told that. We're here to take your testimony today in
14 the matter of ABB versus ROY-G-BIV Corporation.

15 Now, for the purposes of our proceeding today,
16 I'd like to use RGB as an abbreviation for ROY-G-BIV.
17 Do you generally understand that? Is that okay with 18 you?

19 A. Yes. That's fine.

20 Q. In this proceeding, you submitted a number of 21 declarations. Is that correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. And your first declaration, you submitted in 24 IPR-00062. Correct?

25 MR. MEYER: Object to the form.

Page 4

1 THE WITNESS: I don't recall the exact order
2 that a couple of them were submitted. And for the
3 numbers, I'd rather look at the actual declaration. I
4 didn't memorize all the numbers on these.

5 BY MR. McLEOD:

6 Q. I'm not trying to trick you on the numbers.

7 A. But still, just to --

8 Q. At the end of this declaration, you submitted a
9 resume. Do you recall that?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. Now, at the time that the declaration was 12 provided, was the information on it accurate?

13 A. I did find one error in it, which was my contact
14 info. Because by the time I submitted this, I had 15 relocated to Seattle. I was originally in Maryland. So
16 this resume added my new position, but I missed the 17 personal address and information.

18 Q. So, if I understand correctly, you're currently
19 employed at Physio-Control in the Seattle area?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. But your address was out of date?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Looking through your resume here, I note a lot
24 of experience in a variety of fields. I don't see a lot
25 of robotics work. Is that correct?
