On a recent shopping trip to Motherhood Maternity store, I came across when of their fairly new products called Secret Fit Belly jeans. The reason why I was going to Motherhood Maternity was to find new maternity jeans. The sales women directed me to the new Secret Fit Belly jeans, and told me that she has heard a lot of women say how much they liked the new jeans. So I decided to take her advice and try on a couple pairs of the Secret Fit Belly jeans. As soon I slipped the jeans on I could tell that they were no ordinary jeans. When I got the jeans all the way up, it was amazing. They were the most comfortable jeans I have ever worn, pregnant and not pregnant.

The Secret Fit Belly jeans from Motherhood Maternity appear to be normal maternity jeans with the full panel. But the belly panel is something quite different. It is like a nylon fabric that has no visible seams. The panel stretches all the way up the belly, but the great part is that at the top there is no seam on the panel so it is very comfortable on your belly. Also, when you wear a tighter shirt with these Secret Fit Belly jeans you will not be able to tell that you are wearing maternity jeans that have a full panel, as it is smooth on the belly. The belly panel on the Secret Fit Belly jeans hugs the belly and adapts to your growing curves. It is not too tight and it does not keep falling down like other maternity jeans do. Another great part of the Secret Fit Belly jeans from Motherhood Maternity is that the panel can be folded down so that you can wear it anyway which is comfortable for you. You can even wear the Secret Fit Belly jeans after you have the baby by folding the panel all the way down. Since most women do not get back to their regular clothes right after they have a baby, these jeans are great to wear in transition from maternity clothes to your normal clothes. No one will be able to tell they are maternity jeans.

Like all the clothes from Motherhood Maternity, the Secret Fit Belly jeans are very affordable. I did not want to spend a lot of money on maternity jeans, as you only wear them for a limited amount of time. I ended up purchasing two different pairs of Secret Fit Belly jeans from Motherhood Maternity. The one pair, which was the basic jean was only $19.98. They are a basic jean with a boot cut leg. The other pair that I bought was $24.98 and was the 5 pocket jeans that also had a boot cut leg. They do have other more expensive Secret Fit Belly jeans that are more expensive, but the most expensive is for $44.98. The jeans also come in plus sizes too.

I would definitely recommend the Secret Fit Belly jeans from Motherhood Maternity for any pregnant women. They are truly the most comfortable maternity pants I have found with this pregnancy and with my last pregnancy. I wish that they would have come out sooner with them so I would have had them for my last pregnancy. And at such a reasonable price, how could you go wrong.

Motherhood Maternity also sells other pants, skirts, and shorts that have the Secret Fit Belly panel on them also. To check out all the items that Motherhood Maternity sells, visit your local Motherhood Maternity store or go to their website at www.motherhood.com.
