Let's discuss briefly. My concern with adding an end date to this is: what if our contribution (esp. coupled with contributions from others) is not used up by then? My view is that you should continue the activities contemplated by this agreement. What is your view?

Please find attached a revised agreement and redline against your previous version. This should be good to go on our side. If you'd like to discuss, we're generally available after 1 pm today.

Here are some minor edits to the agreement, in clean and redline form. I have a fair bit of time free tomorrow if you want to get on a call to discuss.
