SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION OF CRAIG ROSENBERG, Ph.D.
IN SUPPORT OF PETITIONER'S REPLY

Inter Partes Review of U.S. Patent No. 6,771,970 (the "'970 Patent") to Meir Dan.

2. With regard to my academic experience and qualifications, as previously noted, I have a bachelors, masters, and doctorate in engineering. Thus, I successfully completed studies in a "core" engineering curriculum, including courses in finite mathematics, calculus with analytical geometry, advanced calculus, differential equations, linear algebra, computer programming (Fortran), Computer Aided Modeling (CAM)/Computer Aided Design (CAD). As part of my advanced studies, I successfully completed coursework in artificial intelligence and computer networks.

3. I have testified either in court, by deposition, or by expert report or declaration in at least six civil actions, and in one Inter Partes Review (IPR2014-00159). On information and belief, none of this testimony has been excluded on the basis that I did not possess adequate qualifications to testify as an expert on the subject matter that was the object of my testimony.

fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code.
