Co-pay Cards

Genentech BioOncology Co-pay Card

The Genentech BioOncology Co-pay Card may be able to help with the out-of-pocket costs of your Herceptin® (trastuzumab) prescription.

Some health plans might not accept a co-pay card. Please contact your insurance provider to find out if your plan allows the use of co-pay cards.

To find out if you qualify for this program or to get a co-pay card, call (855) MYCOPAY/(855) 692-6729 or click Get Started.

Qualified Patients*

- I am covered by commercial insurance
 - To answer "yes" to this question, you cannot be covered by a government-funded health care program such as Medicare, Medicaid, Medigap, VA, DoD or Tricare
- I am age 18 years or older
- I currently live or get treatment in the United States or Puerto Rico†

If you answered "yes" to all the questions above, you are eligible.

* If you are receiving funding from the Genentech® Access to Care Foundation, you are not eligible for the Genentech BioOncology Co-pay Card.

† Vermont state laws do not allow programs like this.

FAQs

Q: What types of help do you offer when my plan asks for high co-pays?

A: If you have concerns about covering the cost of your co-pay, we may be able to help. We can refer you to a co-pay foundation to assist you. It can help you cover the cost of the co-pay. Genentech also offers a co-pay card program.
