DECISION
Motion for Joinder
37 C.F.R. § 42.122

<sup>1</sup> This Decision addresses similar issues in the above-identified cases. For efficiency, we issue one Decision to be entered in both cases. The parties may not use this style of filing in subsequent papers, without prior authorization.

Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company, Ltd. and TSMC North America Corporation (collectively, “TSMC”) filed a Petition in each of the above-identified inter partes reviews challenging U.S. Patent No. 7,808,184 B2 (Ex. 1001,<sup>2</sup> “the ’184 patent”) owned by Zond, LLC (“Zond”). Paper 1. Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 42.122(b), TSMC also filed Motions for Joinder, seeking to join its proceedings with proceedings filed by Intel Corporation (“Intel”)—specifically, joining IPR2014-00799 with IPR2014-00455, and IPR2014-00803 with IPR2014-00456. Paper 6.

On September 12, 2014, however, Intel and Zond filed a Joint Motion to Terminate and a true copy of their Written Settlement Agreement, made in connection with the termination, in accordance with 35 U.S.C. § 317(b) and 37 C.F.R. § 42.74(b), in each of Intel’s Proceedings that involved the ’184 patent. See IPR2014-00455, Paper 14, Ex. 1025; IPR2014-00456, Paper 14. Upon consideration, we terminated those Intel Proceedings and entered Judgment in each Intel Proceeding. See IPR2014-00455, Paper 15; IPR2014-00456, Paper 15.

The termination of Intel’s Proceedings renders TSMC’s Motions for Joinder moot. Although we authorized, in our previous Order, TSMC to file a revised Motion for Joinder, TSMC did not file such a Motion within the time period set forth in the Order.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that the Motions for Joinder filed in the above-identified TSMC Proceedings are dismissed as moot.
