DECISION
Dismissing Motion for Joinder
37 C.F.R. § 42.122

¹ This Decision addresses similar issues in the above-identified cases. For efficiency, we issue one Decision to be entered in all of the cases. The parties may not use this style of filing in subsequent papers, without prior authorization.

GLOBALFOUNDRIES U.S., Inc., GLOBALFOUNDRIES Dresden Module One LLC & Co. KG, and GLOBALFOUNDRIES Dresden Module Two LLC & Co. KG (collectively, “GlobalFoundries”) filed a Petition in each of the above-identified inter partes reviews, challenging U.S. Patent 7,147,759 B2 (Ex. 1401, “the ’759 patent”) owned by Zond, LLC (“Zond”). Paper 2.² Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 42.122(b), GlobalFoundries also filed Motions for Joinder, seeking to join its proceedings with proceedings filed by Intel Corporation (“Intel”)—specifically, joining IPR2014-01083 with IPR2014-00447; IPR2014-01086 with IPR2014-00443; and IPR2014-01087 with IPR2014-00444. Paper 6.

On September 12, 2014, however, Intel and Zond filed a Joint Motion to Terminate and a true copy of their Written Settlement Agreement, made in connection with the termination, in accordance with 35 U.S.C. § 317(b) and 37 C.F.R. § 42.74(b), in each of Intel’s Proceedings that involved the ’759 patent. See, e.g., IPR2014-00447, Paper 15; IPR2014-00443, Ex. 1035. Upon consideration, we terminated those Intel Proceedings and entered Judgment in each of the Intel Proceedings. See, e.g., IPR2014-00447, Paper 16. The termination of the Intel Proceedings renders the Motions for Joinder filed by GlobalFoundries moot. Although we authorized, in a prior Order, GlobalFoundries to file a revised Motion for Joinder, we did not receive any revised Motion within the time period set forth in the Order.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that the Motions for Joinder filed in the above-identified GlobalFoundries Proceedings are dismissed as moot.
