Mileage Converter

Mileage Converter is the only online tool that shows you exactly how to transfer miles and/or points between frequent travel programs - and shows you exactly what you'll end up with.

Want to find out how you can move miles from your United Mileage Plus account into America West FlightFund, or all the ways you can get points into your Hilton HHonors account? Just follow the instructions below.

Calculate a Transfer Between Two Programs

1. Select a program from which you would like to transfer miles/points
2. Enter the number of miles/points you would like to transfer
3. Select a program into which you would like to transfer miles/points
4. Click "continue"
