(p) Dictionaries and Google search results

At this time, Patent Owner is not aware of any parties whose depositions will be taken in the course of initial discovery. Patent Owner, however, reserves the right to take such depositions as discovery as a just adjudication of the matter requires, as well as rebuttal depositions of parties identified by or relied on by Petitioner in its case in chief.

Petitioner has declined to identify prospective witnesses and evidence at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: September 23, 2015
