

MAPLES

Cayman Islands

Maples and Calder was formed in the Cayman Islands over 50 years ago and today is the largest law firm in the Cayman Islands. We are also acknowledged by clients and competitors alike as being the market leader in each of our principal practice areas, in particular funds, finance and corporate. Our Cayman office also provides, through our regulated affiliate, incorporation and registered office services.

In response to client demand we opened offices in Dubai, Hong Kong, London and Singapore. These offices give you the option to access our world-renowned Cayman Islands practice with the added convenience of local support in your own time zone and appropriate language. We also have offices in the British Virgin Islands and Dublin which offer British Virgin Islands and Irish legal advice respectively.

Our Cayman Islands office can also coordinate specialised management, administration and fiduciary services through our affiliate, MaplesFS.
